Program

Let By-Gones Be By-Gones
A convict is released from prison. He enters a saloon. Two gamblers drug and rob him. Later he steals a golden chalice from a church. He has the sort of stuff in him that a real man is made of—and in the end wins out. Interesting drama.

Harlequin's Nightmare
Colored pantomime farce. The best, cleanest kind of comedy. Critics agree on it favorably. It's mighty good.

The Rhymester's Ruse
An hilarious comedy drama. Built upon the old superstition that 18 people at the table are unlucky. A poet cleverly securing a 19th member to a party makes it necessary to invite him.
